

STEFANO RISSO

Composer, producer, double bassist and electric bassist

BIOGRAPHY

His interest in songs led him to an exploration of instrumental and vocal music. He has written and produced theatre music and released over five dozen albums, as a lead or with other artists, Italians and from all over the world. He has collaborated with musicians such as Aldo Romano, Stefano Battaglia, Gianni Coscia, Meg, Francesco De Gregori, Eugenio Bennato, Carmel, Moni Odavia, Alborosie. His work has received wide critical acclaim and his interviews have been published in Italian and European magazines. He is also involved in research, visual production and new technologies related to the image, creating all the video materials for the latest productions of Il Cantiere.
